KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Mild Cognitive Changes

Gain an understanding of how mild cognitive changes differ from normal cognition and dementia. Learn about the risk factors, possible causes, risk of progression and interventions.

Cornelia (Kristol) van Ineveld, MD, MSc, FRCPC
Associate Professor and Program Director,
Geriatric Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, University of Manitoba

Getting to Know Me: The Character Within

The characters of people with dementia can be demonstrated in many ways. Understanding the significance of a person's life story will help care partners to understand that the "character" is not lost, only concealed.

Christene Gordon, CSEP, MFC,
Director of Client Services, Alzheimer Society of Alberta and NWT
